Electronic Retailing Self-Regulation Program

ERSP Review Program: General Activity Report

In 2012, the Electronic Retailing Self-Regulation Program (ERSP) expanded its purview to monitor and review the advertising and telemarketing practices of the coaching and mentoring industry.

As part of this ongoing review, five companies, Response Marketing Group, National Marketing & Learning ("NML"), Professional Learning Institute, LLC ("PLI"), FortuneBuilders, Inc., and Income Solutions, Inc. voluntarily submitted their advertising and current telemarketing scripts to ERSP for each coaching or mentoring program that they offer. In addition, Participants provided access to call recording systems so that ERSP can randomly select and review a sample of telemarketing calls (i.e., calls whose primary purpose is to sell a coaching or mentoring program) on a daily basis.

In addition, two companies, EvTech Media, LLC and FortuneBuilders, Inc., voluntarily submitted their advertising along with presentations and audio recordings of their live, free real estate seminars.

ERSP monitors the Participant's telemarketing and/or live seminar recordings for adherence to general advertising principles regarding the truthfulness and accuracy of the representations being made to consumers. ERSP staff also attend randomly selected free live seminar events to evaluate the substantive representations in the context of the presentations.

More specifically, as part of its self-regulatory undertaking, ERSP evaluates the "primary" or "core" claims made in Participants' advertising materials, scripts, and telemarketing recordings, and presentations, i.e., those representations which are deemed by ERSP to be the most significant and fundamental in the communication of material attributes or characteristics of their coaching or mentoring program. The "primary" or "core" claims in a script, telemarketing call, or a live seminar for a coaching or mentoring program include (but are not limited to) claims relating to the objective benefits of the coaching or mentoring program (especially financial benefits) and the qualifications of coaches or mentors or the nature of the assistance.

In addition to monitoring Participants' advertising, ERSP continues to monitor representations made in direct response advertising of lead generation marketers.
